D.J. Sokol Arena Inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center

The Ryan and Sokol familes were honored during the dedication of the facility at intermission of the Creighton vs. Texas Tech volleyball match on Aug. 28, 2009.

Wayne and Eileen Ryan pose with Billy Bluejay at the groundbreaking for the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena.

On Oct. 16, 2007, an important milestone was reached when Creighton broke ground for a new on-campus facility at the northeast corner of 19th and Webster – just north of Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium – thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and Eileen Ryan and family and Dave and Peggy Sokol.

D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center is a 75,000 square-foot facility, that houses a gymnasium holding 2,950 fans, as well as coaches' offices and locker rooms for women's basketball, volleyball, men's soccer, women's soccer, baseball and softball. It also houses areas for ticketing, athletic training, meeting rooms, media workrooms, hospitality functions and additional academic space. The arena is also being used for other campus and community events, including assemblies, coaching camps and clinics, concerts, speakers and high school graduations.

Wayne and Eileen Ryan and their family have been long-time supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. The Ryans are also Jaybackers and their daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton's Board of Directors.

Dave and Peggy Sokol are honoring their son, D.J. Sokol, who died in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. Sokol serves as chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company, a global leader in the production, supply and distribution of energy from diversified fuel sources and recently served on Creighton University's Board of Directors.

D.J. Sokol

"We have been searching to find a more suitable venue for women's basketball and volleyball competitions for some time," said Creighton athletics director Bruce Rasmussen. "Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality. This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

The facility was fully funded by private monies and is home to Bluejay volleyball and women's basketball.

Ground was broken on the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena on Oct. 16, 2007.

Home Venue History

For the second straight season, Creighton will play all its home volleyball matches on campus at D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center.

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction, which employed up to 115 workers at one time.

The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

In addition to a larger locker room and team lounge at D.J. Sokol Arena, Creighton's volleyball program also benefits from coaching offices, a weight room and athletic training rooms in the Ryan Athletic Center. The Ryan Athletic Center also boasts the offices for much of Creighton's support staff, including ticketing, marketing and sports information. The school also bought a Sport Court surface that the team uses for its volleyball matches and practices.

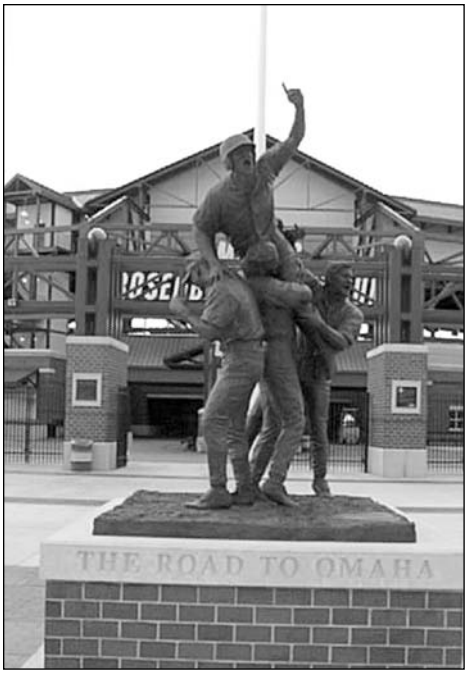
Omaha, Nebraska

Think of Omaha as center court: a dynamic and unique destination in the center of the country, full of action. Omaha has this special spirit that fills the city like an arena full of fans whose team just won with a buzzer beater. Excitement abounds for what it has built, what it has accomplished and what's still ahead.

It's a spirit born on the banks of the Missouri River, a city founded in 1854 by land speculators convinced they were at the heart of something new. Soon after, the transcontinental railroad was built and Omaha emerged as a hotbed of activity and new technologies.

There is a great story about Omaha's growth in the early days that really speaks to the pioneering spirit of the city. As Omaha prepared to lay underground cables for telephones, workers were trying to figure out the easiest way to string the lines. Being an inventive bunch, Omahans solved the problem by getting ferrets to help carry the lines through the tunnels. Sounds extraordinary, but it worked. Today, Omaha is at the center of the telecommunications industry. Call for a hotel reservation from anywhere in the U.S. and you are probably calling Omaha. The city is home to the Hyatt, Marriott, Radisson, and Omni reservation centers. That infrastructure is also key to the nation's defense. Offutt Air Force Base, home to STRATCOM, is based here. STRATCOM is the nation's eyes, ears and muscle when it comes to protecting the country.



Omaha and Creighton hosted the College World Series at Rosenblatt Stadium for the 61st consecutive year in 2010. Next summer the event moves downtown to TD AMERITRADE Park Omaha.

A view of the Omaha skyline at night. More than 800,000 people live in metro Omaha, and about 1.2 million people live within a 50-mile radius.

That spirit is also seen in Omaha's modern day pioneers. Warren Buffett, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is a plainspoken Omaha-born and bred financial pioneer. When Warren speaks, people listen, learn and make money. In fact, as you look at the five Fortune 500 companies that call Omaha home, they are all innovators: Berkshire Hathaway, Union Pacific, ConAgra Foods, Mutual of Omaha and Peter Kiewit Sons'.

It's not just the business community that embodies that spirit; you can also listen to it, touch it, taste it and feel it when you visit Omaha.

Home to the world's largest indoor rainforest, next to the world's largest indoor desert under the world's largest geodesic dome, Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo is a can't miss when you're in town. Experience what it's like to go underground and see rare creatures that only come out at night, or surround yourself with sharks as you walk through an 850,000-gallon underwater tunnel. Talk about innovative: The zoo just spent $6 million on a research facility allowing it to respond to national and international conservation needs.

Omaha's three Smithsonian-affiliated museums offer a diverse cross section of art. Gaze at a 15,000-pound glass sculpture suspended in the air at the Joslyn Art Museum, hop on board Harry S. Truman's press train at the Durham Heritage Museum, or "pilot" a fighter jet at the Strategic Air and Space Museum, home to some of the most prized and rarely displayed military aircraft. Discover how nature can seem brand new as you walk through over 100 acres of lush and rare flora at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's Botanical Center.

Omaha is a mecca to music pioneers, as the city is known by many as the nation's premier hot spot for the indie rock scene. It's home to famed Saddle Creek Records and nationally renowned bands such as Bright Eyes, The Faint and Cursive.

Omaha is a city that never forgets its past. The Old Market is the true merging of old and new. The historic warehouse district was preserved and transformed into the city's art, shopping and dining district. Unique shops and restaurants lining cobblestone streets, it's a place to remember where you've been and where you're going.

The Bob Kerrey Pedestrian Bridge S-curves its way across the Missouri River. This one-of-a-kind structure is the longest pedestrian bridge to link two states.

It's just one more example of how Omaha stays fresh and innovative, all thanks to that indelible pioneering spirit.

Emily Greisch (2003-06)

Creighton Degree: 2007 in Nursing

"Playing volleyball at Creighton was one of the best decisions that I have ever made. I loved everything that we did together. I loved the practices, the matches, the road trips, and most of all the teammates and friends that I have made throughout my four years.

"I learned so much during my time at Creighton. I got a great education in the classroom and learned many life lessons from the team. I really was able to grow as a person. I have taken so many skills that I learned while playing volleyball into my career as a nurse now. Being a student athlete really helped me to understand being a true team player and it also helped me use time-management skills.

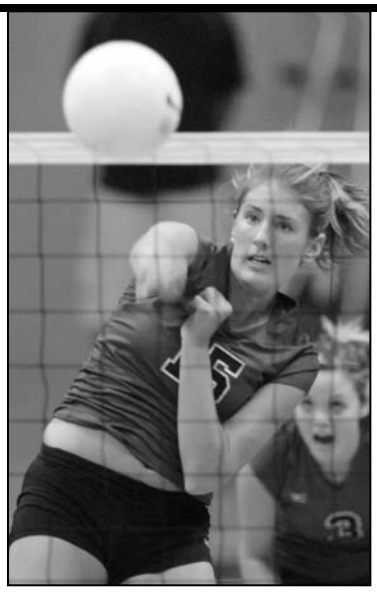
"I am so grateful for the wonderful coaching staff and the lasting friendships with my teammates. I am very excited to have been a part of Creighton volleyball's history and to see the great places the team will go in the future!"

Katie Mehal (2004-07)

Creighton Degree: 2008 in Marketing & Graphic Design

"When I look back at all the decisions I made, my choice to play volleyball for Creighton is by far the one which has influenced me the most. As I look back, I remember all of the practices and matches, but what I value most were the lessons I learned with the family I became a part of.

"As I pushed myself to become a better player, I learned discipline, hard work and perseverance. As I traveled and missed class, I learned responsibility and time-management. And as I grew throughout my four years, I learned that you can learn life skills from things other than volleyball, but the friendships – they last a lifetime."



Leah Ratzlaff (2002-05)

Creighton Degree: 2006 in Psychology

"I had never even heard of Creighton when I was recruited, and now I can't imagine my life without Creighton volleyball. Being part of this program created some of the best memories I will ever have and also introduced me to some amazing people who I know I will be friends with for the rest of my life.

"The team is going to be making some huge strides this season and in the next few years. The NCAA tournament is definitely within their reach. I'm just glad I'll be able to say I was there to help build the foundation and get it all started.

"I truly feel that playing volleyball has made me the person I am today. Not only did it take some qualities I already had and improve on them, like competitiveness and determination, but being part of this program also helped me develop new skills, like leadership and time-management, that will be equally as valuable in the future."

Former Bluejays Playing Professional Volleyball
Name	Country	Team
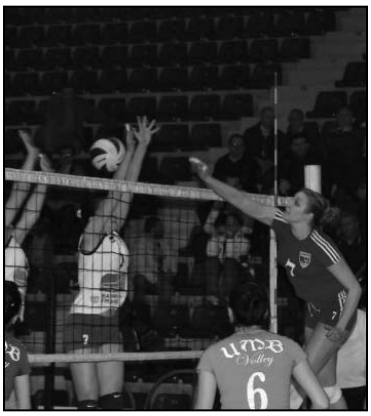
Amanda Cvejdlik	Albania	Marin Barleti
Kelly Goc	Albania	Marin Barleti
Korie Lebeda	Spain	Voley Murcia
Bianca Rivera	Puerto Rico	Bayamón Vaqueras

Kelly Goc and Amanda Cvejdlik - Albania



Kelly Goc (right) will be returning to Albania this fall for her second season with Marin Barleti in Tirana, Albania, where she plays for coach Kreshnik Tartari.

Bianca Rivera - Puerto Rico

Bianca Rivera's (below) first year in Puerto Rico's Women's Superior Volleyball League was a huge success.

Under the direction of Yarelis Rodriguez, the San Juan native was named the league's Rookie of the Year while playing for the Bayamón Vaqueras. Her team qualified for the postseason and she finished the year ranked third in the league with 5.16 digs per set.

Rivera also participated in the league's All-Star Game.

Korie Lebeda - Spain

After a record-setting career at Creighton from 2005-08, Korie Lebeda (left) spent last winter in Murcia, Spain, where she played for Voley Murcia in a league called Superliga Feminina 2. The team is located in the southeastern part of Spain about an hour from the Mediterranean Sea.

Lebeda got the call when Voley Murcia's regular setter was injured in November, joining a team that also included players from Spain, Brazil, the Canary Islands and the United States.

2010 Outlook

With 11 letterwinners, including four starters and libero Nayka Benitez back, look for the 2010 edition of the Creighton volleyball program to lean heavily on its experience and once again put itself in contention for an NCAA Tournament bid.

Though graduated seniors Sarah Schulze and Jessica Houts departed after starting more than 200 matches between them, the rest of last year's team that finished fourth in the Missouri Valley Conference returns.

Coming off a season that saw the Bluejays finish third nationally in blocks per set and establish a school record for home wins, the fans at D.J. Sokol Arena will see a strong home schedule that includes 2009 NCAA Tournament participants Nebraska, Northern Iowa, Lipscomb and Wichita State.

Megan Bober

Setters

Setter Megan Bober is back after starting every match of her freshman season as the Bluejay setter.

Bober earned a spot on the MVC's All-Freshman Team after a rookie campaign that saw her average 9.63 assists. Additionally, the 6-foot-tall southpaw averaged 0.93 blocks per set, the top mark nationally among setters.

Competing with Bober for the setting spot will be sophomore Brittany Moon and freshman Brianne Fliss.

Moon had two assists and two digs in a reserve role last year, while Wisconsin native Fliss helped her high school team to a fifth-place finish at state.

Laurel Sanford

Middle Blockers

Creighton knew it would lose two-time all-Valley selection Jessica Houts to graduation, but were dealt an unexpected blow in late July when fifth-year senior Lauren Bloemke suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her right knee that will cause her to miss the 2010 season.

Bloemke, who missed the majority of the 2009 season with an torn ACL in her left knee, had made 66 career starts and ranked in Creighton's career top-10 in blocks and hitting percentage.

Junior Laurel Sanford had a breakthrough season last year, ranking 25th nationally (third among sophomores) with 1.30 blocks per set. She also averaged 1.68 kills per set last fall while hitting .240 to rank among the club's most efficient attackers.

Sophomore Heather Thorson saw the majority of her time last season on the right-side, but saw increased opportunities in the middle as the year wound down. The team's tallest player (6-foot-3), Thorson's versatility will give coach Kirsten Bernthal Booth some options.

True freshman Savannah Smith could also contend for time in the middle. The Oakland, Iowa, native is the first person in her high school's history to receive a Division I scholarship. She was named the Omaha World-Herald's Class 2A Western Iowa Player of the Year last fall.

Last year Creighton ranked third nationally in blocks per set.

Alicia Runge

Outside & Right Side Hitters

The return of seniors Allie Oelke and Alicia Runge gives Creighton two powerful weapons on the pins, both with the ability to take over a match.

Oelke is a three-year starter who ranked second on the team in both kills and digs per match last year. She topped the club in double-doubles and is on pace to finish her career in the top-five in Creighton history in kills and digs.

Runge was third on the team in kills and emerged as a go-to player down the stretch last fall. She averaged 3.24 kills while hitting .396 in Creighton's last six matches last year.

Junior Karisa Almgren provided a spark off the bench for the Jays at times last year, and will try to break through into a more prominent role. She averaged 0.54 kills and 0.33 blocks per set last year.

In addition to Thorson, two true freshmen, Lexi Malm and Natalie Hackbarth, will look to find a spot in the rotation as well.

Hackbarth had nearly 1,500 kills as a prep and was a two-time first-team all-state pick at Algona (Iowa) High School. She was named her team's top offensive player each of her final three seasons as a prep.

Malm hails from Central City (Neb.) and is a terrific athlete. She won 12 letters in high school (four each in volleyball, basketball and track) and owns her school's record for career kills.

Nayka Benitez

Liberos & Defensive Specialists

The battles for the back row spots figure to be among the most competitive on the team.

After playing every set as Creighton's libero last year, Nayka Benitez returns for her senior campaign. Benitez ranked seventh in the MVC with 516 digs and tied for second in The Valley with 43 aces. Her overpowering jump serve helped her record at least one ace in 24 of 31 matches last fall.

Lisa Greisch and Brooke Boggs split time as defensive specialists last year.

Greisch averaged 1.18 digs per set and could also be in the mix as an outside hitter.

Boggs averaged 1.26 digs per set and was fifth on the team with nine aces.

True freshman Julianne Mandolfo comes to campus with a tremendous defensive reputation and will push for a spot as either libero or defensive specialist after helping Omaha Marian High School to a state title last fall.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

The only coach in Creighton's modern volleyball history to reach 100 wins, Kirsten Bernthal Booth enters her eighth season with an even brighter future, thanks to four returning starters and a spectacular on-campus facility.

After back-to-back second-place finishes in the Missouri Valley Conference resulted in near-misses to the 2007 and 2008 NCAA Tournaments, Booth and her staff have once again assembled a top-notch schedule while challenging the best that college volleyball has to offer.

Best of all, the Bluejays can host these matches at the D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center. The on-campus facility opened in 2009 to rave reviews and hosted six volleyball matches involving ranked teams in its inaugural year, including a win over No. 25 Wichita State.

Booth enters her eighth year as head coach at Creighton with an impressive past, both on and off the court.

Under her direction, the program has attracted two crowds of more than 12,000 while ranking in the top-40 nationally in attendance the past four years.

Creighton has gone 120-89 while averaging 1,139 fans per home match in Booth's tenure, compared to a 77-113 mark and 223 fans per match average the seven years before her arrival. All of Booth's teams have qualified for the MVC Tournament, with the last four of those squads reaching the semifinals.

Booth's .574 winning percentage and 120 wins are best in Creighton volleyball's modern history. Added with her 112 wins in three years at Kirkwood Community College, Booth owns 232 career victories, an average of more than 23 wins per season.

In seven seasons, Booth has coached 10 first-team and six second-team all-MVC picks, while also recruiting and coaching seven MVC all-Freshman Team honorees. Booth's teams have also included 20 members of the MVC Scholar-Athlete Team in that time, including 2006 Academic All-American Emily Greisch.

The 2008 Bluejay squad finished in sole possession of second place for the first time in program history after going 15-3 in league play. Playing the most difficult non-conference schedule in program history, Creighton finished 18-9 overall and had the second-best RPI of any team to not receive an NCAA bid.

That club saw Korie Lebeda close her career as Creighton 's all-time assist leader, while Jessica Houts was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and earned AVCA Honorable-Mention All-America accolades. Joining Lebeda and Houts on the all-MVC First Team was Omaha product Amanda Cvejdlik, while libero Bianca Rivera was a second-team all-Valley selection.

Creighton's 2007 team finished 21-10 and tied for second in the MVC with a 14-4 record. The Jays became the first team in history to rally from an 0-2 deficit to win at UNI, and hosted a record-setting crowd (13,081) at Qwest Center Omaha. Lebeda set a Creighton record for career assists, Rivera a record for single-season digs, and Kelly Goc a season and career mark for hitting percentage. Goc would also become the program's first honorable-mention All-American on the court.

Booth's 2006 team won a school-record 21 matches, picking up in-season tournament titles at Montana State and Middle Tennessee, and reached the MVC Tournament semifinals. They also took a set from eventual national champion Nebraska and picked up three wins over long-time nemesis Illinois State as well as a victory at Wichita State.

The 2005 campaign was highlighted by the program's first-ever win at Northern Iowa, a win over Big East power Marquette, and the title at the San Diego State Invitational. The Jays would finish 16-14.

Booth's 2004 club won a then-record 18 matches while also picking up tournament titles at events hosted by New Mexico and Missouri. Creighton was also the only club in the MVC to beat the regular-season and tourney champ, Wichita State, in 2004.

In 2003, Booth inherited a team that went 3-23 prior to her arrival and improved that nearly identical squad to a 12-18 mark in her debut season at Creighton. That fall, the Bluejays helped pave the foundation for a promising future by signing five Nebraska products that composed one of the nation's most-heralded recruiting classes.

Booth has proven to be a popular coach among her players and within the Omaha community, which is a key factor in the team's record crowds, ranking among the top 40 nationally each of the last four seasons.

On the court, Booth was an all-state setter in high school at Lincoln (Neb.) East and conference MVP in college at Truman State.

Off the court, she earned Academic All-American honors, was named the 1997 Missouri NCAA Woman of the Year, earned her master's degree, and has twice been named District Coach of the Year.

Prior to coming to Creighton, Booth went a combined 112-41 in three seasons at Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. All three of her teams won at least 36 matches. Her first team reached the NJCAA finals before falling to St. Clair College. Her second team placed fourth nationally and her final club won 39 matches and had seven players earn academic all-conference honors.

In addition to her coaching responsibilities, she served as the school's human resource coordinator, where she was in charge of staff development and wellness for all faculty and staff at Kirkwood.

Booth served as a volunteer coach with the University of Iowa in the fall of 1997, helping to run drills and scout opponents. The following spring, she served as interim head coach while running practice and doing other assorted administrative tasks. She later earned her master's degree in higher education administration with an emphasis in athletic administration from Iowa in 2000.

As an undergrad, Booth's teams at Truman State went 101-54 with her running the offense at setter. She was named the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association Freshman of the Year in 1993, and earned all-MIAA accolades her final three seasons as well. She capped off her career in 1996 by earning MIAA Player of the Year honors and setting new school records for assists in a season (1,662) and career (6,077), the latter of which ranked third in NCAA history at the Division II level when she graduated. She remains among Truman's all-time leaders for digs (1,410), aces (127) and blocks (230).

She was also a member of the Student Senate at Truman State, where she graduated magna cum laude with a degree in communications.

Growing up, Booth excelled in both tennis and volleyball at Lincoln East High School, where she is a member of the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. In tennis, she was a three-time All-American and two-time state champion at #1 singles. She was also a second-team all-state volleyball player.

Booth and her husband, Erik, reside in Omaha. The couple has two daughters: Reese (5) and Hayden (3).

Q & A With Kirsten Bernthal Booth

What has the Ryan Athletic Center/D.J. Sokol Arena meant to your program?
"For the first time since our staff's been here we have a home court advantage. First, the atmosphere in the arena is truly awesome. Combine the band, dance team, Blue Crew and fans and it is a tough place to play. Second, we get to practice there and I think that's been key to us from a serving and passing perspective and just a better comfort level for the players. Finally, winning begets winning. I think our players have the expectation that you protect your home court and our kids did that, especially in the conference season."

What are you looking for from prospective student-athletes interested in your program?
"We have lots of kids on our team that turned down BCS schools because they felt Creighton was the perfect mix of academics and athletics. They are driven to be in a top-25 program. They choose Creighton because they can feel the support from the administration on down. They want a degree that when their career is up, will open doors for them in life. And there's no question a Creighton degree will provide great opportunities in the future."

You have some new faces on the staff. What do Tom Mendoza and Amanda (Gates) Sjuts bring to the table?
"I'm really excited about our staff this fall. I had been fortunate to have the same staff for seven seasons, but at some point you need new blood, new ideas, new energy, and I think Tom and Amanda definitely bring that.

Tom was an outstanding college player who has played multiple positions and he's very good fundamentally. His knowledge of the game is outstanding. He enjoys going out to recruit. When you are looking for key things for a great assistant, he has all of those components.

And we're 1-for-1 when it comes to former Nebraska players in our program with assistant coach Angie Oxley Behrens, who is about as good as you can be. What I've been told by numerous people, including coach John Cook at Nebraska, is that they don't get any better than Amanda (Gates) Sjuts. That's been our experience thus far with her. She wants to be a college coach and heavily involved, not only in the training on the court but in the office also. We feel fortunate to have someone with her level of playing experience and character, and that's key in my opinion and something else that attracted me to her."

Last year your team was third in the country in blocking. Is that a point of pride for you and the women in your program?
"Absolutely! We always want to get the opportunity to play defense and put up a good block. I think blocking is one component of success. You have to be great behind the block defensively and then you have to terminate. But there's no question that our players take a lot of pride shutting down hitters in the front row."

Last year's record was a little deceiving because of a tough start. Why will it be better this fall?
"Experience. Obviously we lose Jessica (Houts) and Sarah (Schulze), but I think we've got a lot of experience returning, particularly Megan Bober running the court as a setter. It was fun seeing her progress throughout the year and she had a good spring. Hopefully she can make strides this season like she did last season.

Alicia Runge, who is a very talented athlete, really played well down the stretch last year. We don't know what position she'll be at, but she's an important cog.

Allie Oelke can do it all both offensively and defensively.

Laurel Sanford is in the middle and had a good sophomore year in her first season as a significant contributor.

And Nayka (Benitez) is returning from a defensive standpoint.

The thing that I am very optimistic about this fall is that we have one of the best classes we've ever had. All five freshmen could potentially be on the court. We've got some kids who are raw, but we'll try to get them ready early in the year. Who will be on the court is the biggest question at this point."

Year-by-Year Under Kirsten Bernthal Booth

2009 (14-17, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 86)
Creighton opens the D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, setting a school record with 10 home wins. Creighton beats #25 Wichita State on Oct. 2 for its first win over a ranked opponent ever, and hosts the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament for the first time at year's end. The team overcomes a 3-8 non-conference mark with a fourth-place finish in the MVC. Jessica Houts is named first-team all-MVC to lead a Creighton defense that ranked third nationally in blocks per set.

2008 (18-9, 15-3 MVC, Final RPI of 46)
Once again Creighton narrowly misses an NCAA bid, finishing with the second-best RPI of any team left out of the field. The Jays dropped key five-set matches to #21 LSU and UAB early in the year and a chance to pick up some key wins was lost when a tournament was cancelled due to a hurricane in Texas. Creighton cruises through the league with a best-ever 15-3 mark, including a 3-0 sweep of UNI on the last weekend of the year, to finish alone in second-place and set a program record with an eighth straight win. However, the Bluejays dropped a five-set match to UNI in the MVC Tournament semifinals. Jessica Houts is named MVC Defensive Player of the Year and honorable-mention All-American and joined teammates Korie Lebeda and Amanda Cvejdlik on the All-MVC First Team.

2007 (21-10, 14-4 MVC, Final RPI of 56)
Creighton does not receive an NCAA Tournament at-large bid despite wrapping up a second straight 21-10 campaign. The Jays tie for second in the MVC but despite one of the nation's top-15 toughest non-conference schedules, aren't among four MVC teams selected to the NCAA's. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda both repeat as first-team All-Valley picks, with Goc also named an honorable-mention All-American. Allie Oelke is MVC Freshman of the Year, while libero Bianca Rivera sets new single-season dig marks. Creighton averages a record 1,860 fans per match, hosting more than 13,000 at Qwest Center Omaha for a Sept. 2 contest against Cal Poly.

2006 (21-10, 12-6 MVC, Final RPI of 57)
Creighton's first team to win 20 or more matches ranks among the national leaders in attendance as well. A five-set road win at Wichita State and exciting four-set match against eventual national champion Nebraska before more than 12,000 fans prove the program has reached unprecedented heights. Kelly Goc and Korie Lebeda are both named first-team All-Valley as the Jays beat three teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

2005 (16-14, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 124)
A road win at Northern Iowa highlights a 16-14 season. Leah Ratzlaff repeats her All-MVC honors and finishes 12th in league history in career kills. Freshman Korie Lebeda led the MVC with a school-record 13.34 assists per set and was joined by talented classmates Jessica Houts and Amanda Cvejdlik.

2004 (18-11, 10-8 MVC, Final RPI of 95)
A then-school-record seven-match winning streak that included wins at Missouri, New Mexico and Iowa helped Creighton set a record with 18 wins. Leah Ratzlaff is first-team All-MVC, while Carolyn Decker and Kelly Goc are named to the MVC's All-Freshman Team.

2003 (12-18, 9-9 MVC, Final RPI of 170)
Though it's virtually the same personnel, Booth's first team improves its win total by nine wins to finish 12-18. The season marks the program's move to the Omaha Civic Auditorium, and attendance records fall. Single-season school records were set for kills (Leah Ratzlaff), digs (Janeen Piller), blocks (Ashley Williams) and assists (Brittany Coleman).

Assistant Coaches

Angie Oxley Behrens

A former national champion and four-year starter at the University of Nebraska, Angie Oxley Behrens returns for her eighth season as an assistant coach at Creighton. She is the longest tenured assistant coach in program history.

Behrens works closely with Creighton's outside hitters while also assisting with scouting and recruiting.

The last seven years have seen the Creighton team record its top five single-season kill totals all-time, as well as the top four individual single-season marks that were set by Leah Ratzlaff and Kelly Goc.

Behrens has also trained four players to a spot on the MVC's All-Freshman team, middle blockers Kelly Goc (2004) and Jessica Houts (2005) as well as outside hitters Carolyn Decker (2004) and Allie Oelke (2007). Oelke became the program's first player named Valley Freshman of the Year as well.

A member of Kirsten Bernthal Booth's original staff, Behrens has seen Creighton go 120-89 in her seven completed seasons on the bench.

While at NU, Behrens won three Big 12 titles, was named 1997 Big 12 Freshman of the Year and was chosen as the University's female student-athlete of the year in 2001 after leading the Cornhuskers to a 34-0 mark and national title in the fall of 2000 as a senior.

She closed her career as the school's all-time digs leader with 1,086.

In the classroom, Behrens was a Chancellor's Scholar and four-time Highest Honors Distinction Medal honoree. She also was a four-year academic All-Big 12 selection, a recipient of an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and one of 10 finalists for the 2001 NCAA Woman of the Year. She was also a member of the Mortar Board Honor Society, Pi Lambda Theta Honor Society, Golden Key, 2000 Homecoming Royalty Court and the Dean's List.

Along with her coaching duties, Behrens helps organize Creighton's volleyball camps in addition to her role in the Bluejay compliance office.

Behrens and her husband, Matt, were married in June of 2006. The couple resides in Lincoln with their son, Logan, who was born on June 5, 2010.

Tom Mendoza

Tom Mendoza is in his first year as an assistant coach at Creighton.

He was hired in June after spending the previous season at the University of Evansville. While with the Purple Aces, Mendoza worked with the setters, outside hitters and primary passers. He also recruited for the Purple Aces program.

"The number one thing I look for when hiring is high character," said Kirsten Bernthal Booth. "Tom is a high character person in addition to being a fantastic coach. He was an outstanding collegiate player and we look forward to him bringing in new training ideas to enhance our team. In addition, he was heavily involved with recruiting at Evansville and has connections in areas of the country where we'd like to make additional inroads."

Mendoza, a native of Buffalo Grove, Ill., came to UE after spending two seasons as the volunteer assistant at Michigan State. While at Michigan State, Mendoza and the Spartans appeared in the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2007. He also served on the Michigan State volleyball summer camp staff in 2007 and 2008 and was the director of Spartan Session volleyball camps and clinics.

A three-year letterwinner in volleyball at Newman University and a one-year letterwinner at Lewis University, Mendoza had an outstanding playing career. He was a 10-time Mid-America Men's Volleyball Intercollegiate Conference Setter of the Week and was a three-time all-conference selection. During his playing career, he was also named a NAIA All-American.

Mendoza served as the head coach of the Spartan Junior 16 Girls club team that finished first in the Michigan Power League. He was also the head coach for the Juggernaut Volleyball Club in Wheat Ridge, Colo., and the Sports Performance 15 Elite Boys that earned fifth place at the Junior Olympic Nationals.

Mendoza received his bachelor's degree in management information systems from Lewis University in Romeoville, Ill.

He is single and resides in Omaha.

Amanda (Gates) Sjuts

Former University of Nebraska middle blocker Amanda (Gates) Sjuts was named volunteer assistant coach at Creighton in July.

Sjuts' primary responsibilities will be helping with practices -- specifically training middle blockers -- as well as some administrative tasks.

A native of Columbus, Neb., she competed at Nebraska from 2005-08 under her maiden name of Amanda Gates. She enjoyed a decorated career with the Huskers as part of a senior class that went 127-8 over four years as the Cornhuskers won the national title in 2006, were NCAA runner-up in 2005, reached the NCAA Tournament semifinals in 2008 and the NCAA quarterfinals in 2007.

In 2008 she was named a CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine First Team Academic All-American in addition to honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades while serving as a Husker tri-captain. She was a recipient of Postgraduate Scholarships from both the NCAA and Big 12 Conference, a two-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 pick and was a nine-time selection to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

She and her husband, Anthony, were married in July and reside in Omaha.

The Missouri Valley Conference

From its early beginning to its current standing on the map of college athletics, the Missouri Valley Conference continues to be proactive in its approach as it enters its 104th year in 2010-11. The nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference is a leader in college athletics and one of the nation's most progressive conferences.

The Missouri Valley Conference enters a new decade facing a rapidly changing environment in NCAA Division I athletics as conference expansion and realignment swept the nation in the summer of 2010. Although The Valley was untouched, the league will remain vigilant in monitoring changes or potential changes in other conferences that might impact membership, or present opportunities for expansion.

Men's basketball continues to be the engine that drives Valley athletic programs. With UNI's NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2010, the league has had four different Sweet 16 teams since 2006, and The Valley is the only non-BCS league with more than two different Sweet 16 teams in that span. Notably, a run of nine straight seasons with two or more teams in the NCAAs ended in 2007, as the past three seasons have seen only the tournament champion included in the NCAA field.

Last year, UNI's team swept both the regular season and State Farm MVC Tournament titles, earning the Valley's lone NCAA Tournament berth in the process. The Panthers escaped with a 69-66 victory over UNLV in the NCAA's opening round. UNI then became the first MVC team to beat a #1 seed in the NCAA Tournament since Cincinnati beat #1-ranked Ohio State in the NCAA championship game in 1962, when it toppled #1-seeded Kansas 69-67. Ali Farokhmanesh's key field goals in the final moments of both tournament games sealed those victories and the Panthers finished with a school-record 30 wins (30-5), losing to Michigan State in the Sweet 16 in St. Louis.

Notably, The Valley made history in March 2007 with record attendance for four days at St. Louis' Scottrade Center as 85,074 fans turned out to watch the five sessions of the tournament. The two sellout crowds of 22,612 for both the semifinals and final of the 2007 State Farm Tournament set an all-time attendance record for basketball at the arena and also gave The Valley the distinction of having the largest championship crowd for any of the 30 NCAA conference tournaments in 2007. The State Farm MVC Tournament continues to be a spectacular showcase for the league, and the MVC has extended the tournament agreement with the Scottrade Center that will keep Arch Madness in St. Louis through 2013. At the 2011 State Farm MVC Championship, the league will surpass one million in total attendance for the event, now in its 21st year.

In women's basketball, the MVC matched a league-high tying six teams earning post-season berths, while 2010 marked the 11th straight season that The Valley earned at least three post-season bids. Illinois State advanced to the semifinals of the WNIT, marking the fourth time in league history that a Valley school has played in the WNIT semifinals, while Bradley and Wichita State earned their first-ever postseason wins in program history. UNI won its first-ever State Farm MVC Championship title, earning its first berth to the NCAA Tournament field of 64. The conference remains committed to keeping the tournament at a neutral site at the Family Arena in St. Charles Mo., as establishing a neutral site remains a huge part of the overall effort to improve women's basketball in The Valley.

In volleyball, for the sixth time in league history, two MVC teams were invited to dance in the 2009 NCAA Volleyball Championship – UNI and Wichita State. With first-round wins over Washington State and Saint Louis, respectively, it marked just the second time in MVC history that two teams advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament in the same season (2006 – Missouri State and UNI).

In baseball, Illinois State clinched a share of the regular-season MVC title for the first time in league history, and the Redbirds took home the State Farm MVC Tournament trophy as well, topping host and top-seeded Wichita State. Illinois State earned its second bid to the NCAA Tournament.

In softball, the MVC returned to its multi-bid status after a one-year hiatus, sending two teams – Creighton and Illinois State – to the NCAA Tournament. The 2010 campaign marked the seventh time in eight seasons that The Valley has placed multiple teams into the NCAA field.

In men's soccer, for the 13th time in league history, at least two MVC teams were invited to dance in the 2009 NCAA Men's Soccer Championship – Drake and Missouri State. The Bulldogs won their first league tournament championship and saw its magical run end at the NCAA Elite Eight, falling to No. 4 North Carolina, 2-1. The 2009 campaign marked the third-straight season and the ninth time in the past 10 years that a Valley men's soccer team advanced to the Quarterfinal Round of the NCAA Championship.

During the tenure of Doug Elgin, The Valley's ninth and longest-tenured commissioner, The Valley has been aggressive in hosting NCAA events in St. Louis. Since 1998, the MVC served as host for a staggering nine NCAA tournament events in the 13-year period, which has made St. Louis one of the most frequent stops on the NCAA Tournament trail. The Valley hosted Women's Final Fours in 2001 and 2009, and the Men's Final Four in 2005.

The seeds for the creation of the conference were planted by eight administrators representing five institutions, who met at the Midland Hotel in Kansas City, Mo., on Jan. 12, 1907. The five schools which formed the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association were Washington University of St. Louis, and the state universities of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska. Two months after the initial meeting, two more schools -- Drake University and Iowa State College -- were admitted.

In the fall of 1907, basketball became the first competitive sport. Today, the Missouri Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country and track & field (indoor and outdoor), men's and women's golf, men's and women's soccer, softball, women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

Athletic accomplishments on the men's athletics side include 14 national basketball championships, 16 trips to the NCAA Final Four, a 1989 national baseball championship and 19 College World Series qualifiers. In 2010, Missouri State's men's basketball program won the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament, the league's first national title in men's basketball since 1982 (Bradley, NIT). In 2001, Missouri State added to The Valley women's accomplishments, as the Lady Bears advanced to the Women's Basketball Final Four in St. Louis. Creighton (2004) and Missouri State (2005) have claimed national championships (WNIT) in women's basketball, while MSU also has a 1992 NCAA Women's Final Four appearance, and Creighton (2003), Drake (1999) and Illinois State (2009) have made semifinal trips to the WNIT postseason tournament.

Indeed, the inclusion of women's programs under The Valley banner has provided a boost. The Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference -- which began in 1982 -- merged with the Missouri Valley Conference and was unveiled as part of the new conference on July 1, 1992.

And while the inclusion of women's sports under a comprehensive athletic umbrella is a recent development in the league's storied history, over the years, Valley student-athletes and coaches have become household names during the league's illustrious history, both during their collegiate careers and, for some, professional careers.

In fact, The Valley began honoring that tradition in the summer of 1997, when the conference began its athletics Hall of Fame. Hersey Hawkins of Bradley, Larry Bird of Indiana State, Wes Unseld of Louisville, Coach Henry Iba of Oklahoma State, Dave Stallworth of Wichita State, Ed Macauley of Saint Louis, and Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati were members of the initial induction class. Currently, more than 60 former players, coaches and alums dot the league's Hall of Fame.

In the fall of 1997, Creighton's Johnny Torres was named the collegiate male soccer player of the year for a second-straight year, while SMU's Luchi Gonzalez (2001) and Tulsa's Ryan Pore (2004) have also earned a National Player of the Year honor in men's soccer. Meanwhile league member Wichita State has produced three national collegiate players of the year in baseball, including Joe Carter (1981), Phil Stephenson (1982) and Darren Dreifort (1993).

League members include Bradley, Creighton, Drake, Evansville, Illinois State, Indiana State, Missouri State, Northern Iowa, Southern Illinois, and Wichita State. Central Arkansas and Southern Illinois-Edwardsville are men's soccer affiliates, beginning in 2010.

2009 Recap

The opening of D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and the first visit of the State Farm MVC Tournament to Omaha highlighted Creighton's 2009 Volleyball season. The first-class facility gives the Bluejays an on-campus home for years to come, and the intimate atmosphere helped Creighton to a 10-5 home record in its inaugural year.

Creighton opened the building with a 3-0 win over Big 12 school Texas Tech on August 28th in the opening match of the Bluejay Invitational. The day featured a memorable dedication ceremony in the morning, followed by the season-opening romp that evening before an enthusiastic crowd of 2,285 students, boosters and community leaders.

One day later, No. 10 Illinois claimed the Bluejay Invitational crown, beating both Texas Tech and Creighton. The field was cut to three teams when Tulane dropped out 48 hours before the tournament was to begin when the Green Wave team was hit by the H1N1 virus.

The schedule would get even tougher three nights later when the Jays took on the nation's No. 6 team, Nebraska, at the NU Coliseum.

Creighton's non-conference gauntlet continued the following weekend in Lawrence, Kan., when it had a disappointing 0-3 weekend. Creighton lost a pair of close matches to NCAA Tournament teams (Florida International and Lipscomb) before falling in four sets to host Kansas.

The following weekend Creighton headed to Dayton, Ohio, where it snapped a rare five-match losing streak with a sweep of Samford. The following day was full of heartbreak, as CU wasted a 2-1 lead in a loss to Connecticut before wasting a 2-0 lead at undefeated Dayton, losing both contests in five sets.

Creighton shook off its 2-8 start, coming home to start Missouri Valley Conference play. The Jays opened league action with a four-set win over Bradley before losing in four sets to eventual MVC champ Northern Iowa. Those matches would mark the final ones of the season for senior MB Lauren Bloemke, who would seek a medical hardship season after never fully recovering from off-season knee surgery.

Creighton would continue its upswing with three wins in its next four matches, including a 3-1 upset of No. 25 Wichita State. That win snapped Creighton's 0-35 drought against ranked teams, and proved the team could compete with anyone.

The Jays would split their next 16 matches, going 8-8 down the stretch. The stretch included a 3-1 Senior Night win over Evansville on Nov. 14 as well as a 3-0 win at Bradley a week later to close the regular-season. The victory over the Braves clinched a share of fourth-place for Creighton as well as a sixth-straight season of 10 or more league triumphs.

Creighton then hosted the State Farm MVC Tournament for the first time in program history, a nod to the program's recent success as well as its new facility. Creighton would sweep fifth-seeded Drake in the quarterfinal round before seeing its season end at the hands of Northern Iowa for the fifth consecutive year in the MVC Tournament. The top-seeded Panthers beat Creighton in three sets en route to eventually winning the tournament title the following day vs. Wichita State.

2009 Creighton Bluejays

Statistically, Creighton's 2009 season will best be remembered for the record-setting block it put up. Creighton's 3.08 blocks per set, 354.5 total blocks and 599 block assists all shattered previous school records. Creighton would finish the season ranked third nationally in blocks per set, with senior Jessica Houts (1.44 bps.) finishing 12th-best nationally and sophomore Laurel Sanford (1.30) not far behind at 25th in the country.

Houts enjoyed a memorable senior year on campus, repeating first-team all-MVC accolades. Houts led Creighton in kills (331), kills per set (2.88), hitting percentage (.254), total blocks (166), block assists (154), and blocks per set (1.44) while doing a little bit of everything.

Allie Oelke enjoyed a solid junior season, ranking second on the team with 2.64 kills and 3.30 digs and fourth with 0.73 blocks per set. Oelke also turned in a team-best 12 double-doubles on the season.

Sanford was fourth on the team in kills per set but second in blocks while making tremendous strides in her development as an all-around force.

Senior Sarah Schulze started most matches as well, averaging 1.22 kills and 2.80 digs per set while playing all six rotations. She closed her career in the top-10 in Bluejay history with 1,056 career digs.

After sitting out 2008 as a redshirt, Alicia Runge showed glimpses of brilliance in her junior season. Runge finished third on the team in kills per set (2.37) and played her best ball of the year down the stretch.

Runge was not the only newcomer making an impact, as a talented group of freshmen also were difference-makers.

Megan Bober highlighted that group, starting every match as Creighton's setter and eventually landing a spot on the MVC's All-Freshman Team. Bober averaged 9.63 assists per set and her 107 blocks and 0.93 blocks per set were both school marks for a Bluejay setter.

Junior-college transfer Nayka Benitez came in to the program to play libero, and delivered 4.49 digs per set. She also would rank in the top-100 nationally with 43 aces and 0.37 aces per set.

Helping to stabilize the back row with Benitez were defensive specialists Brooke Boggs and Lisa Greisch. Boggs made 11 starts and averaged 1.20 digs per set, while Greisch averaged 1.18 digs per set and made four starts.

Reserve setter Brittany Moon played sparingly, but did contribute two assists and two digs on the season. She did start the third set of a late home match against Southern Illinois, helping Creighton to a 6-3 lead while Bober was out receiving intravenous fluids.

The Jays also used four other attacking players in a variety of roles.

Bloemke came into the season as a returning starter but would appear in just eight matches due to ongoing complications from off-season knee surgery. Bloemke would see most of her time as a serving specialist.

Sophomore Karisa Almgren gave the Jays a secret weapon off the bench. Almgren had 13 kills and eight blocks in 15 contests as a reserve. Several times during the year Almgren would be called on to provide a spark or to help a struggling offense.

Heather Thorson also was employed in a similar role as Almgren, across the front line. Thorson started Creighton's first six matches on the right side, as well as Creighton's Nov. 20 match at Northern Iowa in the middle. Thorson would average 0.59 kills and 0.45 blocks during her rookie campaign.

An additional freshman, Caitlin Templeton, would finish the year with two kills in three swings and also contribute one digs and one block in four appearances.

With everyone except Houts, Schulze and Templeton back for the fall of 2010, hopes remain high that the Bluejays can ride their late-season flurry into another upper-division finish next season.

Digs and Digs Per Set

A dig is awarded when a player passes the ball that has been attacked by the opposition. Digs are given only when players receive an attacked ball and it is kept in play, not when a ball is brought up off a "put back" (blocked ball).

Block Solos and Block Assists

A block solo is awarded when a single player blocks the ball into the opposition's court leading directly to a point. That player must be the only blocker attempting to block the ball.
A block assist is awarded when two or three players block the ball into the opponent's court for a point. Each player blocking receives a block assist even if only one player actually makes contact with the ball.

Head Coach History

Ben Guiliano

Ben Guiliano helped lay the groundwork for Creighton volleyball as the man in charge when Creighton reinstated volleyball prior to the 1994 season. Guiliano guided the Bluejays from 1994-96 and posted a 25-58 record in that time.

Howard Wallace

Howard Wallace took over prior to the 1997 season and led the Bluejays to four Missouri Valley Conference Tournament appearances in his six years on the job. In 1997, Wallace was named the MVC's Co-Coach of the Year after guiding the Jays to a third-place finish in league play. He resigned Dec. 10, 2002, with a 68-94 record in six seasons on the Bluejay bench.

Kirsten Bernthal Booth

Kirsten Bernthal Booth became the program's third head coach with her Feb. 3, 2003, appointment. She owns a record of 120-89 entering 2010 and is the school's all-time leader in wins (120) and winning percentage (.574). Booth also ranks ninth in MVC history in winning percentage.

Student Snapshot

Creighton students come from every state and more than 40 countries. Of our more than 7,000 students, over 4,000 are enrolled as undergraduates, and more than 3,000 are in the graduate, law, medical, dental, pharmacy, physical therapy and occupational therapy programs.

The Creighton Campus

Creighton is committed to being a model living-learning campus environment. The 130-acre campus is located within walking distance of downtown Omaha and many recreational, cultural and entertainment opportunities.

Creighton has invested more than $285 million in on-campus improvements since 2000 and constructed several new buildings, including the Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which distinguishes Omaha as the exclusive host of the region's only athletic facility designed exclusively for soccer. The stadium hosts high school, club and international soccer events and a variety of Omaha community events. The Hixson-Lied Science Building and the renovated Rigge Science Building and Criss Health Sciences Building are the centerpiece of Creighton's undergraduate and health professions leading approach to teaching and research. Davis Square and Opus Hall are new upperclassman town homes located on the east side of campus. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena serves as an on-campus home to Bluejay women's basketball and volleyball.

The Mike and Josie Harper Center for Student Life and Learning, a 245,000-square-foot facility, provides essential, centrally located services for students. It also serves as Creighton's front door – warmly welcoming prospective students, parents, members of the community and all other visitors.

At the center of the campus is the historic and recently restored St. John's Church, the California Street Mall, the Lied Education Center for the Arts, the V.J. and Angela Skutt Student Center and the Kiewit Fitness Center.

Creighton University was named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll in 2008 and 2009. In a top 25 ranking, Creighton was the only university in Nebraska and surrounding states identified as an academic institution making a positive contribution to the local city by dramatically strengthening the quality of life and economy, as well as renewing and revitalizing its surrounding community.

Service and Outreach

Creighton seeks to educate women and men who are not only proficient in their professions, but who are enlivened with a spirit of service and emboldened to create a more just world.

History of Billy Bluejay

"Billy Bluejay" is the official mascot of the Creighton University athletics department. The Bluejays were originally depicted by a "birdwatcher's bluejay," but that was changed in 1941 when Joseph P. Murphy, a Creighton alumnus, designed the current version of Billy, one with a more human stance and expression.

Prior to 1924, Creighton teams were referred to as the "Hilltoppers," but that name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country also used the same nickname. The Omaha Bee assisted the University's Athletic Board and Alumni Association in finding a new nickname by asking readers to submit possibilities. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletic Board decided upon "Bluejays" because of the school's colors, blue and white.

Today, Creighton remains the only NCAA Division I athletics program known officially as the Bluejays.

Creighton President and Director of Athletics

University President Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J.

Under the leadership of Creighton President the Rev. John P. Schlegel, S.J., Creighton University is nationally recognized as a premier university in the Midwest and is experiencing a new era of growth.

Fr. Schlegel became Creighton University's 23rd president in August 2000, following nine years as president of the University of San Francisco.

Through his vision, the University is engaged in its most ambitious campus expansion effort in its more than 130-year history. Creighton is becoming a national model showcasing a dynamic faith-based living and learning community in a 21st century urban environment.

In 2005, Fr. Schlegel announced Willing To Lead: The Campaign For Creighton University – an ambitious $350 million campaign designed to secure Creighton's place as one of the finest Jesuit, Catholic universities in the United States.

Since he arrived, the University has added more than 40 acres to its campus and invested more than $285 million in new construction, renovation and campus improvement. Already recognized as a leader in science education, the University has renovated many of its science-related facilities and is home to the new state-of-the-art Hixson-Lied Science Building. This integrated science center and the Creighton University Medical Center provide a national model for interdisciplinary health sciences education and research.

Creighton's expanding campus offers a welcoming environment for all students. In the fall of 2006, Creighton opened Opus Hall, one of two new resident town homes offering apartment living for junior and seniors. Creighton opened the Mike and Josie Harper Center for Student Life and Learning in the fall of 2008. This unique facility serves as a dramatic "front door" to the University, consolidating traditional student support services into one student-friendly location. Add to that Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium, which is among the premier college campus soccer facilities in the nation, and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena, one of the finest women's athletics facilities in the nation.

Prior to his service at the University of San Francisco, Fr. Schlegel was Creighton University's assistant academic vice president (1978-82), academic dean of Rockhurst College (1982-84), dean of arts and sciences at Marquette University (1984-88), and executive and academic vice president at John Carroll University (1988-91).

Fr. Schlegel, a native of Dubuque, Iowa, entered the Society of Jesus in 1963 and was ordained in 1973. He holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from Saint Louis University; a B.D. honors degree in theology from the University of London; and a doctorate in international relations from Oxford University.

He is a member of numerous international, national and local boards of directors, executive committees and associations. Fr. Schlegel is a past member of the board of trustees of Chicago's Loyola University, Xavier University, Loyola University New Orleans, Saint Louis University and Loyola College in Maryland. Fr. Schlegel also is a director of the American International School of Hong Kong.

In Omaha, he has served on several boards including Creighton University Medical Center, Creighton Preparatory School, Duchesne Academy and Opera Omaha. He is a member of the board of directors of the Greater Omaha Chamber of Commerce, Joslyn Art Museum and Mid-America Council, Boy Scouts of America. In 2007, he became a Distinguished Eagle Scout. He is also a member of the US STRATCOM Consultation Committee.

He has held numerous board positions with an array of organizations including St. Mary's Medical Center Foundation, Il Cenacolo, Coro, World Affairs Council of Northern California, the Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities, the National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities, where he serves on the executive committee and chairs the public policy committee, and Heythrop College at the University of London.

Fr. Schlegel also has served on accreditation site visits for the North Central Association, and was a consultant to the Organization for Economic Development and Cooperation based in Paris.

In 2004 the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society Lodge 1 in Omaha presented him with the Honored Citizen Award for his outstanding leadership of Creighton University. For his promotion of understanding and respect among all races, religions and cultures, Fr. Schlegel received the Otto Swanson Spirit of Service Award from the National Conference for Community and Justice in May 2003. He was inducted as the Omaha Press Club's 114th "Face on the Barroom Floor" in 2007. In 2008, he received the Tim Rouse Advocate for Women in Leadership Award and was honored by the Nebraska Unicameral for his commitment to diversity.

He enjoys opera, classical music, gourmet cooking, racquet sports and the outdoors.

Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen

The dean of MVC Athletic Directors and a 2008 inductee into the Omaha Sports Hall of Fame, Bruce Rasmussen enters his 17th year as director of athletics, and 31st overall at Creighton University.

During his tenure, Creighton has risen to prominence with its success on-and-off the field, impressive facilities and record-breaking fundraising efforts.

For evidence, look no further than three projects that will change the area athletics scene for years to come. The Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena opened last fall and immediately gave Creighton's women's basketball and volleyball teams a top-notch facility to call home. East of the Ryan Athletic Center will be Creighton's new student recreation center that was named the Rasmussen Center in his honor and will stand as one of the centerpieces on the Creighton campus. Last but not least is the completion of TD AMERITRADE Park Omaha, where Bluejay baseball and the College World Series will play.

Those projects add to an overhaul in the school's athletic facilities over the past decade, which has also seen Creighton begin play at two of the finest facilities nationwide -- Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium (soccer) and Qwest Center Omaha (men's basketball).

Since Rasmussen assumed the role of Athletics Director, Creighton has won 19 regular-season and 27 conference tournament titles, which have helped lead to 51 postseason appearances. The Bluejays are the only school in the 104-year history of the Missouri Valley Conference to make 13 straight men's basketball postseasons.

Creighton has also been recognized with the MVC All-Academic Award in five of the past six seasons, including a record 3.35 GPA last spring by student-athletes.

The Creighton softball team has made six NCAA Tournament appearances in the last eight years, while the men's soccer squad has reached 17 of the past 18 NCAA Tournaments.

A member of the College World Series of Omaha, Inc., Executive Committee, Rasmussen continues to play a vital role in Creighton and the city of Omaha remaining as host of the College World Series. He was one of six individuals on the CWS Oversight Committee that helped decide the location for the new downtown TD AMERITRADE Park Omaha, which will help keep the CWS in town for another 25 years.

With Creighton serving as host, the CWS has established new attendance records in six of the past eight years at Rosenblatt Stadium.

Rasmussen was one of four regional winners from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) to take home a 2004 GeneralSports TURF Systems AD of the Year Award.

In terms of academics, Creighton's reputation as one of the nation's top academic institutions is reflected in the success the Bluejay student-athletes have had in the classroom during Rasmussen's service as athletics director. Creighton's baseball, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, women's soccer and men's and women's tennis teams all have received national awards for their academic success. Bluejay student-athletes consistently own GPA's of 3.25 or above.

Creighton's primary annual athletics fundraising events are the Bluejay Bash and the Bluejay Jamboree. Under Rasmussen's supervision, each of these events continues to raise record-breaking funds for Creighton athletics. Most notably, the 2009 Jamboree generated more than $350,000 through its gourmet dinner, raffle and auction.

Rasmussen accepted the associate athletics director position in 1992 after a 12-year run as the winningest coach in Creighton women's basketball history (196-147), culminating in the program's historic 1991-92 season.

The 1992 Western Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, Rasmussen led the 1991-92 Bluejay women to a program-record 28 wins (28-4), the WAC regular-season and tournament championships and a first-round NCAA Tournament victory in the program's first-ever trip to the "Big Dance." With that 28-4 record in 1991-92, Rasmussen completed his college coaching career with a 196-147 record, good for a .571 winning percentage.

After serving as associate athletics director for two years, 1992-94, Rasmussen was named athletics director on Aug. 1, 1994.

A native of Webster City, Iowa, Rasmussen and his wife, Jill, have five children: Megan (25), David (23), John (19), Katy (15) and Grace (12).
